

The Sloane Club together with The Wine Guild of the United Kingdom have put together a delightful selection of wines which we know will suit every occasion. The wines identified have been specially selected and endorsed by a panel of tasters from The Wine Guild and The Sloane Club, led by Maggie McNie Master of Wine. Each wine has been chosen because they are good examples of their type, well made and full of character. A brief tasting note is given with each wine endorsed; however all the wines on our list have the approval of our tasting panel. I hope you will have as much pleasure and enjoyment from our new wine list as we have had putting it together.
